

Research Agenda

EDUCATION, SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES CLUSTER

The research agenda serves as a guidepost and template for research and development activities of different offices and colleges.

The overall purpose of the research agenda is to unify efforts of the different departments in the integration of instruction, research and extension, to conduct researches anchored on institutional, local, regional and national needs and priorities, to realize the university's core competencies through the conduct of research, and to establish the link between instruction and extension through the conduct of research.

College of Arts and Sciences

Pedagogies in Philippine educational system, mathematics, language, and music in indigenous Filipino expressive culture, K-12 studies, value-based education approaches, character education of Saletinnian graduates, employment-oriented education and training, supervisory practices and competency of internship instructors

Bachelor of Arts in Journalism

Freedom of speech and mass media, media and disasters, the influence of the Internet on media development, media for educational purposes, videoblogging

Bachelor of Elementary Education Bachelor of Secondary Education

Pedagogies in Philippine educational system, inclusive education for special with special needs, assessment of learning, distance and residential, educational modes, gender sensitivity of curriculum and instruction, mathematics, language, and music in indigenous Filipino expressive culture, K-12 studies, value-based education approaches, model building studies, Filipinnovation in music, theatre, dance, literature, performing arts, retrieval and documentation of indigenous technology in Filipino expressive culture

Bachelor of Science in Criminology

Peace studies and conflict resolution, effective crime prevention methods, risk factors or causes of offending, risk reduction and disaster management, security and safety initiatives

Specific Objectives of the Research Agenda

1. To provide focus and direction on research and development activities that address various issues and concerns of the institution and its stakeholders;
2. To provide research-based solutions that address pressing national and local problems;
3. To serve as basis for funding research projects and for collaboration between and among colleges and departments of the university and other institutions and funding agencies;
4. To guide academic work of writing thesis and dissertation and minimize duplication of researches; and
5. To guide resource utilization in the University.

INSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH AGENDA

1. Studies on assessment of programs/curricula
2. Studies on educational quality and standards,
3. Studies on technology and education
4. Graduate tracer studies
5. Policy-oriented studies
6. Human resources demand and supply studies

Bachelor of Arts in Political Science

The political culture of Filipinos and its implications to Philippine bureaucracy, assessment of the local government code, disaster risk management, climate change

Social Sciences

Philippine cultural heritage, indigenous music of ethnolinguistic groups, preservation and promotion of Filipino social and national values/language, peace studies and conflict resolution, human dimensions research on climate change, resource sustainability of ecosystems, biological pollution

Bachelor of Science in Social Work

Women migrant workers, indigenous peoples, child abuse and/or exploitation, gender in nation-building and disaster risk reduction/climate change adaptation

Bachelor of Science in Psychology

Depression, personality development, adjustments

University of La Salette, Inc.
OFFICE OF RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT
3F, Ina ng Pag-asa Bldg, Arranz St., Dubinan East, Santiago City